

FAIR BRSS & CO.

A DROP OF INK To Make You Think!

The rush for Holiday Goods is over and gone. The pleasant gift-giving day is a thing of the past, and now the trade which we expect will be limited to the necessities of life. Christmas may have made you feel poor in money and rich in love. We are rich in money but don't love our goods well enough to carry a single winter article over into the spring season. So we inaugurate with this advertisement a

SPECIAL SALE OF WINTER GOODS

At prices that we could not offer before the Holidays. Come to this sale prepared to load up for the three months of cold weather we are yet to have. Our prices will make every one happy.

AT ANDERSON'S * BAZAAR.

"Sara & Me" have just been casting up last year's business, and the result is, we are in a good humor. We like folks better; and we believe the folks like us better. But you can't tell. "New Year" wishes and compliments are misleading, it's true, and the interest and good will may all be for

Our "Wonderful $1.99 Shoes"

That can't be bought anywhere except at Anderson's Bazaar or in THOSE MATCH-LESS $3 FUR RUGS that every one says would be a bargain at $5 or it may be the old but ever new story of

Anderson's Wear-for-ever Shoes

That binds our friends to us. No disappointed customer in this article, and after a trial of one pair no desire to buy shoes except at Headquarters—Anderson's Bazaar. Nobody in Ohio county sells these goods but SARA & ME, and this is a pretty good thing for us, but the year's sale of these was not more pleasing or surprising than that of

Dress Goods and Millinery

It has grown to be a fact, believed and taken advantage of by Hartford folks and others all around that the Bazaar hats gotten up by Miss Collins are inferior to nothing city-trimmed and cost about one half. So it occurs to "Sara & Me" that with these advantages and the continued zeal of our buyer Boss who sends us the cheapest goods in the markets always, we will continue to interest EVERY ONE WHO WANTS GOOD GOODS AT FAIR PRICES.

With no change in our ONE-PRICE-TO-ALL Motto, and thus treating all alike, whether rich or poor, big or little, we hope for the continued good-will and patronage of the public.

ABOUT TOBACCO.

Statistics of Tobacco Production of the United States for the Year 1929 as Returned to the Census Office.

Non-Producing States and Territories.

Washington, Jan. 1. The census office has issued a bulletin giving the statistics of the tobacco production in the United States during the year 1929.

The bulletin states that tobacco is produced to a greater or less extent in forty-two states and territories, the only non-producing states being Idaho, Nevada, Rhode Island and Wyoming, and the non-producing territories Oklahoma and Utah.

The entire crop of the country amounted in 1929 to 498,959,880 pounds, and the area devoted to tobacco was exclusive of counties cultivating less than one acre, 692,000 acres, or 1,098 square miles.

In cultivation, however, very unequally distributed, Kentucky having 20.2 per cent of the total acreage and producing 44.4 per cent of the crop.

Of the six states next in rank of production 10.1 per cent of the acreage and 14.5 per cent of the crop were the twenty states and territories having the smallest production but less than 100 acres in tobacco and yielded an average of only 41,000 pounds or less than one-tenth of 1 per cent.

The average production per acre of the entire country was 716 pounds, or 1.098 square miles, among the seed leaf states, producing 5,000,000 pounds or upward from 854 lbs per acre in Ohio to 140 pounds per acre in Connecticut and 270 pounds per acre in North Carolina to 420 pounds per acre in Missouri.

The total value of the crop to the producers, estimated on the basis of actual sales, was $38,844,410, an average of 7.1 cents per pound, or $50.9 per acre.

The average price per pound received by the producer in states producing 5,000,000 pounds or upward amounted to 4.3 cents in Missouri and 1.7 cents in Maryland to 12.8 cents in Connecticut and 14.3 cents in North Carolina.

Although the total reported acreage in tobacco shows an increase of 10 per cent, upon that in 1928, there is a decrease of 91 in the number of tobacco producing counties, there being only 1,041 as compared with 1,151 in 1928. It is likewise worthy of note that the proportion borne by the crop of Kentucky to the entire production of the country is steadily increasing, having advanced from 24.9 per cent in 1928 to 44.4 per cent in 1929 to 47.4 per cent in 1930 as already stated.

The leading tobacco-producing county of the entire country is Lancaster county, Pa., which yielded in 1929 217,800 pounds. Christian and Henderson counties, Ky., each produced over 100,000 pounds.

Two colored leaders were overheard talking in the following conversation on one of the streets of a Texas town: "You see, Jim, you don't call around much any more, do you?"

"No, I haven't. I've got a lot of other things to do now. I've got to go to the bank to get my money, and I've got to go to the doctor to get my medicine."

"What's the matter with you? You look like a ghost. You've lost your color. You've lost your appetite. You've lost your sleep. You've lost your mind."

"I've got a lot of other things to do now. I've got to go to the bank to get my money, and I've got to go to the doctor to get my medicine."

In Memory of Fannie Hoover.

The white winged angel has again seen his plumes over me, and borne a loved one from the presence of kindred and friends, to that beautiful home beyond the misty blue valley of death.

Fannie, daughter of Alex and Lella Hoover, died of the consumption of the lungs, at her home in the city of Hartford, Conn., on January 12, 1930, in the 10th year of her age.

Her funeral was held at her home the following day by Rev. Colman, after which her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Pleasant Hill in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Fannie's life was a beautiful flower that grew in the soil of adversity, and she left behind her a beautiful memory that will live on in the hearts of those who loved her.

Her death was a great loss to her family, and we are sure that she is now in a better place, where she will be reunited with her loved ones.

We are sure that she is now in a better place, where she will be reunited with her loved ones.

A Bear Kills A Bull.

It appears that a farmer in Tennessee lately was disturbed while at dinner by the bellowing of his cattle. He went out and found that a bear was in the yard, and he was in the act of killing a bull.

The bear thought the bull's horns were a rival claim to the fence, and he was in the act of killing a bull.
